Pascha 2025

the most wonderful time of the year!

...Now since you are celebrating the Holy Pascha, you should know, brethren, what the Pascha is.

Pascha means the crossing-over (pass or cross-over), and so the Festival is called by this name. For it was on this day that the Children of Israel crossed over out of Egypt, and the Son of God crossed over from this world to His Father.

What gain is it to celebrate unless you imitate Him, Whom you worship; that is, unless you cross over from Egypt, that is, from the darkness of evildoing to the light of virtue, from the love of this world to the love of your heavenly home?

An EXPLANATION of the beginning of HOLY WEEK

Fr. Alexander Schmemmann

LAZARUS SATURDAY - The Beginning of the Cross

"Having fulfilled Forty Days... we enter the Holy Week of Thy Passion." With these words sung at Vespers of Friday, Lent comes to its end and we enter Christ's suffering, death and Resurrection – Holy Week.

It begins on the Saturday of Lazarus. The double feast of Lazarus' resurrection and the Entrance of the Lord to Jerusalem (Palm Sunday) is described as the "beginning of the Cross". The common Troparion-Hymn of these days explicitly affirms that by raising Lazarus from the dead Christ confirmed the truth of the resurrection. It is highly significant that we are led into the darkness of the Cross by light and joy.

All those familiar with Orthodox worship know the peculiar, almost paradoxical character of Lazarus Saturday services. It is a Sunday, i.e., a Resurrection, service - on a Saturday, a day devoted to the liturgical commemoration of the dead. And the joy which permeates these services stresses one central theme: the forthcoming victory of Christ over Hades. Hades is the Biblical term for Death, for that unescapable darkness and destruction that swallows all life and poisons with its shadow the whole world. But now -- with Lazarus' resurrection -- "death begins to tremble." For there the decisive duel between Life and Death begins and it gives us the key to the entire liturgical mystery of Pascha. In the early church Lazarus Saturday was called "announcement of Pascha", it announces and anticipates, the wonderful light and peace of the next Saturday - the Great and Holy Saturday, the day of the Lifegiving Tomb.

Lazarus, the Friend of Jesus

The world is but lamentation and sorrow, tears and death. How is this possible? How did this happen? These are the questions implied in John's slow and detailed narrative of Jesus' coming to the grave of His friend. And once there, "Jesus wept." (John 11:35) Why does He weep,... because He contemplates the triumph of death and destruction in the world created by God.

Love, the Power of Life

"It stinks." say the Judeans trying to prevent Jesus from approaching the corpse, and this awful warning applies to the whole world, to all life. God is Life and the Giver of Life. He called man into the Divine reality of Life and behold "it stinks."... The world was created to reflect and proclaim the glory of God and "it stinks." At the grave of Lazarus God encounters Death, the reality of anti-life, of destruction and despair. He meets His Enemy, who has taken away from Him His World and become its prince.

We follow Jesus.... the shortest verse of the Gospel: "and Jesus wept"... He wept, i.e., loved His friend Lazarus. God is Love and Love is life, Love creates Life... It is Love that weeps at the grave and it is Love that restores life. This is the meaning of the Divine tears of Jesus. "Lazarus, come forth!..."

This is why Lazarus Saturday is the beginning of both: the Cross, as the Supreme sacrifice of love, the Resurrection, as the ultimate triumph of love.

Notes:

Paying down our Mortgage by $40,000. Our mortgage balance is $96,035. This is the third mortgage in our Saco location & it was taken for the metal roof of the church & to buy additional property as a buffer. The Church Council is recommending this amount, with the hope of another successful Festival to possibly pay it off completely!

Currently our interest rate is 7.81%.

*Contributing from the Growth & Development Fund $2,300 to Project Mexico. According to the very simple rules of the Fund, a small committee was formed to make a recommendation to the Church Council which accepts or rejects this. The Council accepted it & thus is forwarding it to the General Assembly for final approval.

The amount recommended is not more than 90% of the interest of the previous year.

Update on AC for the church-temple. We will only discuss the latest information (update) for the possibility of installing AC in our church-temple, the Connector & the bride-cry room.
